What on Earth
Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trims put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.
Nothing is so desired by a woman as a beautiful complexion. This can only be obtained by the application of Appel's Complexion Cream. This preparation does not cover blemishes but cures them. It is perfectly harmless and can be used on the tenderest skin. For sale by Mrs. L. M. Siddens sole agent for Carson. 50c and $1.00.

In a recent article in the Youths Companion, on "How to cure a cold," the writer advises a hot lemonade to be taken at bed times. It is a dangerous treatment, especially during the severe cold weather of the winter months, as it opens the pores of the skin and leaves the system in such condition that another and much more severe cold is almost certain to be contracted. Many years constant use and the experience of thousands of person of all ages, has fully demonstrated that there is nothing better for a severe cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts in perfect harmony with nature, relieves the lungs, liquefies the tough tenacious mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and restores the system to a strong and healthy condition. Fifty cent bottles for sale by G. C. Thaxter.

NEW MEN WANTED.

The San Francisco Call says: A friend wishes to know whom we had in view when we published the following paragraph:

The Call is of the opinion that the Republican should take up some young Californian—a native of the State—for our next Governor.

In answer to the above inquiry we will say that we are not wedded to any particular candidate. There are numbers of persons in every way qualified to fill the position of Governor who are Californians, not only by birth, but in feeling also. We are for trying new blood in managing the affairs of the State, and we should like to see the experiment carried still further. Why not re-place the official blood-suckers who are now in office, by young Californians? Who would not, for instance, rather see the position of the Board of Supervisors which are now filled by Buckley's scalawags occupied by young men who have grown up in the State, and have a pride in its future? Most of our officials at present are men who live by politics. It is a profession with them, as they will, as we have seen, serve any interest which will assist them to a nomination, no matter whether it be a boss or a corporation. By all means, give the young men a chance.

When Nevada mine owners can work ore as cheaply as they do in Michigan, stockholders will get more out of the mines than now. The present manager of the Ropes gold mine, of Michigan, is reported to have said that $1.75 per ton covered the entire cost of mining and breaking, crushing and stamping, including fuel, repairs, etc.

The London Scandal.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—As a result of the secret examination in connection with the West End scandal, summonses have been issued for the arrest of Solicitor Arthur Newton, Clerk Taylor and Interpreter Degala for conspiracy to defeat justice.

It is understood that Newton assisted the proprietor of the Cleveland street house, in which the scandal occurred, to reach America.

FEMALE FIGHTERS.

Terrible Battle Between Two Rival Establishments.

On Tuesday afternoon, between 4 and 5 o'clock, there was a lively battle between a house known as No. 1 and the inmates of the old Turner house in the rear. Two inmates of the rear house got into a squabble with No. 1 and the five went into the street to settle the matter.

Witnesses to the fracas say that it was the liveliest of the kind ever seen in Carson for years. The combatants became so mixed up that it was impossible to distinguish any individual from the balance.

It was just a confused mingling of fists, arms and heels, crinoline, embroidered drapery and silk stockings, for about ten minutes. The spectators say that the Turner house girls blacked the eyes of the other three from No. 1 and vanquished them by dint of superior science. Some of their left hand blows would have done credit to the "Nonpareil" or "Belfast Snider." The beaten women acknowledge defeat by retiring to their establishment to wash up and change their clothes which was badly bedraggled.

Yesterday afternoon there was another fight, this time between two colored females who act in the capacity of chambermaids in the respective houses. The one in the rear however, come out and twitted the other on the defeat of the previous day.

This led to some language of a highly florid character, and the No. 1 chambermaid walked into the street and snorted forth her challenge to battle. The other came to time and there was a lively fistcuff. Fighting at long range not suiting either, they closed in catch-as-catch can and finally No 1 downed her antagonist and hammered her about the head and face, asking her to quit.

"Does you holler 'nuff?" she would shout as she sent in half a dozen blows.

"No I doan holler 'nuff, you black wench."

This dialogue was kept up until the white inmates came out and separated the two. The vanquished woman left her hat and cloak on the ground and the other signified her disapproval by dancing on it for several minutes.

Then a woman came out of No. 1 in a Minkade costume and led her in with a sound lecture on her misbehavior.

Hostilities are expected to be resumed at any time, with legal suits for damages.

Townsend Gets Home.

From the following it is evident that Jim Townsend has returned home. He leads off as follows:

The editor of the Index has returned home, after an absence of six weeks. Having suffered a severe surgical operation he is quite under the weather, but hopes to be in condition next week to pay his respects to the small fry back biters who have been talking with their mouths too much, and to the unclean beasts who have befouled their nests and reveled in the filth during his absence.

We want it to be distinctly understood that the Index has been supported and maintained solely and wholly by the individual efforts of its editor and proprietor. It has never seen the color of any other man's money except it was honestly earned. He who makes an assertion to the contrary is a venomous liar and loves malicious lying as a dog loves vomit. If we choose to publish a paper in Lundy it is nobody's business but our own, nor is it anybody's business if we have an object in view.

Not in the Bible.

And it is said of him, that he collected all the people together, and he said unto them: "When is divinity student like a merchant?" And they knew not. Then he enlightened them by saying in answer "Know ye, it is when he studies the prophets (profits)." Gentle Reader, Olcovich Bro's shoe department is well filled with all styles of desirable shoes. Call when in need of any. d15

CRONIN MURDERERS.

The Case of Kunze and Sullivan.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—Attorney Dan Donahue will move for a new trial for Kunze. Kunze is very much affected by the verdict. There is a rumor on the street that when the motion for a new trial in the Cronin case is ready to be argued, the State will probably not resist it. Speaking of the probability of such action, Attorney for the State Ing have said it might be advisable, if only the question of re-trial were to be considered, but there would be great difficulty in securing a competent jury. The impression has gained ground to the effect that as the prisoners had been once found guilty and the punishment fixed at imprisonment, they subsequently could not be condemned to death.

A visit to Alexander Sullivan's office by two reporters was not productive of much information. Sullivan, on being asked what he thought of the verdict in the Cronin case replied: "I do not wish to be interviewed; I have nothing to say." The second reporter repeated the question in a slightly different form, and Sullivan said: "I have answered you once, I know of no other way in which I can say it in English. If you know of any, please consider it said."

For Epicures.

Turkey Dinner for 25 Cents.

J. E. McDonald, of the St. Charles Hotel, is taking especial pains to prepare a Grand Turkey Dinner for Christmas and New Years. What is the use of families going to the trouble of getting up a dinner on those days when they can get a turkey dinner at the St. Charles for Twenty-five cents? d19

A London Grand Jury has indicted Parke, who is the editor of the North London Press, for libel, on account of an article implicating the Earl of Euston in the Cavendish square scandal. This must result in developing all the facts of the case, and whether the editor be convicted or acquitted the whole matter will be ventilated. Certain members of the English peerage will feel very uneasy until the trial is over.

An illustration of continuing an error, even after it is acknowledged, was brought out when Mr. Bartine interviewed the President relative to the question of Mexican lead. The President admitted the injustice of the importation, but said it was not customary to disturb a precedent established by a former Administration. This sounds like the utterances of a school-boy making his first discoveries in etiquette. Any Administration should be strong enough to correct blunders and wrongs without regard to who had established them.—Gazette.
